If you disapprove something, remember to criticize the ideas, not the person who formulates them.

Be respectful with everyone, especially with women.

It is forbidden to:

- * insult, use offensive language, scurrilous, blasphemous, racist, sexist
- * insert unsuitable or pornographic audio
- * make personal attacks
- * react instinctively and with little thoughtful
- * have intentionally harmful behavior aimed at causing problems and discussions

SELECTING THE RIGHT GROUP for you:

The Groups are like rooms where people meet and speak.

Make the effort to understand which is the group whose themes meet your liking, so as to encourage a mutual entertainment as interesting and pleasant as possible. Groups are for everyone, but it is necessary to respect the topics that people are dealing with at the time.

Before intervening, listen and choose the most opportune moment.

It is forbidden to fake other users using photos and nicknames that characterize the profile of other people.

No to the frenzy "repetitive quick key" of the PTT:

Always leave a pause before pressing the PTT again, speak briefly and concisely, without monopolizing the conversation.

When the group is very large, leave room for all participants to intervene

Avoid "ping pong" with the same interlocutor, if you need to continue the conversation with a specific user, move to another free group or in channel mode (CH).

respect NATIONAL LANGUAGE

Every nation has their own language groups, please avoid speaking a different language.

if you notice a PROBLEM:

Report it to an administrator, who has the function of moderation and exclusion of recidivist users who violate this regulation.

Avoid responding directly to the troublemaker, never insult them.

Ignore troublemakers and put them in to the "black list".

Warning: do not abuse the blacklist. For example, you cannot put a person on the black list, simply because he is just listening on the channel.

Those who are wrongly using the black list, are subject to judgement by Midland and its administrators; if this use is considered inadequate, they could be permanently banned.

With your help, administrators can support a happy use of CB Talk by all users who use it correctly.

In the absence of an administrator, you can always communicate directly to Midland by sending an email to infoapp@midlandeuropa.com.

MIDLAND FINAL AND INCONTESTABLE JUDGMENT

Midland, at its discretion, can delete (ban) a user from the App either temporarily or permanently.

Similarly, it can also silence entire groups or channels.
